

Spring Newsletter 2026

*“May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us—yes, establish the work of our hands.”
-Psalm 90:17*

Dear Friends of HOLF,
We give praise to God and acknowledge His unfailing love as we enter 2026 and step into a new season for HOLF. We continue to trust in his sustaining provision and protection. This is a significant year for HOLF as our new building in Tai Po will be completed.

We are delighted to share our most recent developments.

Our new logo will be launched soon.

Our website is in the process of being restructured and will also be launched soon. This will be a platform for us to keep you updated with fresh, current news and information. It will also be a channel for introducing our service to a wider community.

As our new buildings in Tai Po will soon be completed, the preparations for our future relocation are now well underway. In addition to accommodating more people in need of residential care services, it will also provide job and training opportunities for people with disabilities.

We remain committed to our co-founder’s Wendy Blackmur and Valerie Conibear mission and will continue to carry it forward in our new journey, caring for people with intellectual and physical disabilities. Your continuing support alongside us, especially at this time of change is a blessing and an encouragement to us.

Message From The Trustees

"When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died..." (From an Easter Hymn)

It's Palm Sunday today and a time to reflect on the start of Holy Week...when on Friday Christians will survey the "wondrous cross"! What a curious expression to describe the cross upon which criminals and Jesus were crucified...

A painful and humiliating death!

With wars raging, vast numbers of people displaced, wounded, starving, desolate there is so much suffering in the world, it's hard to be "full of the joys of spring". So we cling to the hope that comes with a risen Lord which we will celebrate next Sunday on Easter Day!

The hymn continues:

*"Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast
save in the death of Christ, my God!
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them through his blood.
See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?
Were the whole realm of Love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.
Psalter Hymnal, 1987*

What does that mean to you?

As trustees we have spent some time over the last couple of months reflecting on 60 years past and 60 years to the future of HOLF. Fine-tuning our vision, mission and values as we prepare for our new home in Tai Po. An exciting time of growth as we seek to triple our offering on the new site, preparing for new residents, understanding who we can take as residents and those with regret that we can't take. A new logo, a new website, more new staff and new supporting technology. It's a lot of change to handle and embrace. Thankfully, our faith, the love and faithfulness from God never changes even if it is "new every morning".

We are so thankful for our staff who work so hard, love our residents with care and tenderness and endure the long hours, the physical endurance and all the challenges that come with caring for our residents...we hope this is balanced by the joys that come from the smiles and cries of appreciation through the happier moments of a day, a week and a month....and the joys from our volunteers who sing, play, perform for our residents, the birthdays celebrated, the visitors who encourage their smiles. Thank you.

So as the first page of this Newsletter describes there is much more news to come over the next month or so. Please continue to join us in prayer as we finalise so many aspects of HOLF life.

And let us together celebrate "love so amazing, so divine" as we celebrate the risen Lord this Easter and always.

With our thanks,

*The trustees,
Andrew, David, Gretchen, Jen, PK, Rebecca, and Kristian*
